Biscuits and Snacks Symposium

November 9-10, 2010

Simultaneous translation

ZDS Seminar SIS-10

There are many similarities in the manufacture of snacks and biscuits. Therefore the purpose of this symposium is to demonstrate current trends in the area of raw materials and process technologies which are of interest to both sectors. Cross-industry information provides the opportunity for new product ideas and lucrative new ways of optimising manufacturing processes.

This practice-orientated seminar offers participants an ideal forum for obtaining information and discussing problems with experts, exchanging ideas and forming alliances.

Focuses of this year's event:

- ◆ Trends & Market Developments
- ◆ Availability of Raw Materials
- ◆ New Processing Technologies
- ◆ Cost reduction in production
- ◆ Up-dated Legal Status

Target group: Biscuit producers, snack manufacturers & suppliers: management, research & development, marketing, production, quality management as well as research
